

To successfully cut out the flags, we used an X-ACTO® knife with a no. 11 blade, along with a corked-backed metal ruler. To make sure the points of the flag lined up well, we first glued the points together, let that dry, then put glue inside and attached the flag to the stem.

